KP Principles

- ▶ The benefits are enjoyed by the client only when the cuspal sub lord promises
 - ▶ It is on the analogy 'To fetch the water in bucket from well, the Water must be in the well first' How much is also like water is a bucket full or tumbler full or only a glass full.
 - ▶ Events occur only in the Dasha and Antara of the significator planets
 - ▶ Transits of the planets should agree

KP Principles

- ▶ Modern KP follows Four step theory to decide important significators
 - ▶ Rahu and Ketu are more powerful in KP
 - ▶ They represent the planet conjoined, aspecting planets on Rahu and Ketu and the sign lord in whose sign Rahu or Ketu is deposited

KP Principles

- ▶ Transit of planets must be tallied before giving final predictions. It must agree with the ruling planets
 - ▶ Ruling planets at the time of judgment given by the astrologer and the happening of actual events are same
 - ▶ Ruling planets is an important tool for Birth rectifications

KP Principles

- ▶ No planet is purely malefic or benefic against the traditional system where Mars, Saturn, Sun are malefic and Mercury, Venus, Moon and Jupiter are benefic
- ▶ KP uses western house system and Indian aspects for predictions. It is based on Raphels table of houses and KP ayanamsha
